

Level Up

Leadership Development for Manufacturing

Designed to support those in the manufacturing industry who are currently in mid-level management roles, and on a trajectory for management leadership roles.

Over the past two years, the Corridor has persevered through natural disasters, pandemics and workforce challenges. There is a true need for professional development that focuses on the manufacturing industry, with the intention of developing the pipeline of mid-level managers within the industry.

Level Up is a development program designed to support participants in gaining leadership insight, skills and experiences that they can apply personally and professionally. Level up your career path.
